

Encounter With God

Amos 4:12

So do you, o Israel, and why you do, prepare yourself, o Israel, to meet your God.

We have a text of the old testament that connotes with the current reality, which brings strong warning that in particular the man will meet with God.

The prophet Amos was making an allusion condemning the lust and licentiousness which was at that time the King was showing the Prophet the beauty of women who showed their half-naked feminine exuberances.

But the servant of God in your Holiness the failed calling them cows of Bashan, a breed of cattle.

As a result of these sins the Lord sent a discipline about to rain on a region and another not. And lastly Amos was imperative in saying: "prepare to meet your God."

Today is no different when the man has presented the pictures disgusting as the naturalists of the nudist beaches.

The culmination of our study is to show that at one point of our existence, we will meet God. Of way shall we are prepared for this moment is of glory and joy, and never providing cons and sadness.

In all the meetings of life certainly has a consequence, which is good or not.

The encounter of a man with your companion in the conjugal union is born the son;

The date of the rain with the Earth comes the beautiful and nutritious orchards;

The man with the devil raises the Sin and consequently death before Jesus;

The meeting of the human being with God produces the salvation and eternal joy. But this event only happens in life with repentance for sin.

In various parts of the Bible we find events that the man was unhappy for not making a Covenant with God and will join the sin, an irreversible destruction. But I want to show that above the human sins there is the grace of God in our favor, so that Jesus Christ shed yourself of your glory to rescue us. It is enough that the sinner ask the Lord that he work in your life, as wrote the Evangelist Matthew.

Matthew 7:7-8

07-ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and ye shall find; knock and the door will be opened to you.

08-Because everyone who asks receives; and he who seeks, finds; and to him that knocketh, to open up to you.

It shows that if we seek the Lord, certainly will. That's why Jesus died. The very word give various testimonies for edification of those who read and accept that fact. Let's see some cases.

Jesus to meet Lazaro – from death to life * John 11:32:44;

Jesus and Bartimaeus – from darkness to light * Matthew 20:29-30;

Jesus and paralyzed-38 years without walking and now victory * John 5:1-16;

Jesus and wife of blood flow – Twelve years of pain and healing * Matthew 9:20-22;

Jesus and you-for sure.

Wish a wonderful encounter with Jesus right now and receive the peace that everyone needs, and finally the eternal life.
